Those who have stomach trouble no matter how slight, should give every possible help to the digestive organs, so that the food may be digested with the least effort. This may be done by taking something that contains natural digestive properties—something like Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

Kodol is a preparation of vegetable acids and contains the very same juices found in a healthy stomach. It digests what you eat, sold by L. S. Simmons.

The man who tortures animals is a dangerous member of society. He is a degenerate, who would commit just such crimes upon the human race were it not for his fear of punishment.

WARNING

If you have kidney and bladder trouble and do not use Foley's Kidney Cure, you will have only yourself to blame for results, as it positively cures all forms of kidney and bladder diseases.

Denatured Alcohol Rules.

Amended denatured alcohol regulations have been issued by the commissioner of internal revenue, to take place on September 1st, of the regulations heretofore issued, and are made necessary by the act passed by the last Congress.

Under the new regulations, in addition to denatured warehouses on distillery premises, central denaturing warehouses may be constructed at such points as business interests may require, and alcohol may be transferred from denaturing warehouses by tank or tank cars to consumers.

Manufacturers using completely denatured alcohol are not required to swear to application for a permit, and a permit when secured continues in force until revoked, and retail dealers in denatured alcohol are not required to keep a record of any kind.

Industrial or farm distilleries may produce alcohol from anything that contains fermentable matter. At these distilleries one room may be used as a combined cistern, distillery ware house and denatured ware house.

Industrial distilleries are divided into two classes. In the first class are placed distilleries of a surveyed capacity of fifty proof gallons or less of spirits in twenty four hours.

At such distilleries storekeepers' gaugers are not regularly assigned until the collector certifies that in his opinion the presence of an officer at that particular distillery is necessary.

Distilleries of the second class are those that produce more than fifty gallons and less than a hundred gallons of distilled spirits daily.

At distilleries of this class an officer will be regularly assigned unless the collector certifies that the distillery can safely operate without one.

Proprietors of industrial distilleries and manufacturers recovering alcohol in manufacturing processes where but a small quantity of alcohol is denatured, are not required to provide themselves with denaturing material rooms, but may procure approved authorized denaturants, either from central denaturing warehouses or from distilleries from which regular denaturing warehouses are established.

What a New Jersey Editor Says

"We never repent of eating too little," was one of the ten rules of life of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the rule applies to everyone without exception during hot weather, because it is hard for food, even in small quantities, to be digested when the blood is at high temperature. At this season of the year we should eat sparingly and properly. We should help the stomach as much as possible by the use of a little Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which will rest the stomach by digesting the food itself, sold by L. S. Simmons.

"If you find yourself a-feein, that you'd like to pick a fight, if you find you're not a sleepin', an' you hardly eat a bite, if your head keeps a-throbbin' at a mile-a-minute rate, you have got it quit your workin' an' begin a diggin' bait."

Ten Years in Bed
"For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys," writes R. A. Gray, J. P. of Oakville, Ind. "It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a Godsend to me." L. S. Simmons.

Nothing helps philosophy like a steady job.

Men Past Sixty in Danger
More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate glands. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rockport, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now ninety years old." L. S. Simmons.

Sonoma-Glen Ellen Power Co

Mr. C. T. Ryland, proprietor of the Sonoma Valley Co., that is supplying this city and valley with electric lights and electric power has decided to change the name of his company to the Sonoma-Glen Ellen Electric Power Co. The Sonoma Valley Company has greatly expanded its sphere of usefulness and convenience and considers that the new name would be more appropriate.

Hay Fever and Summer Colds

Victims of hay fever will experience relief by taking Foley's Honey and Tar, as it stops difficult breathing immediately and heals the inflamed air passages, and even if it should fail to cure you it will give instant relief. The genuine is in a yellow package. L. S. Simmons.

Dove Law is Wrong

Sportsmen say the dove law is wrong, says the Healdsburg Enterprise. As amended by the last legislature, the open season is from July 15 to October 15. Hunters are now killing doves, and every hen dove killed has partly developed eggs in her. The breeding season has scarcely begun and hunters says that opening of the season should be delayed at least thirty days—fifty days would be better still, according to men who know.

John Riha, a prominent dealer of Visalia, la., says: "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold. There are a dozen people here who have used them and they give perfect satisfaction in every case. I have used them myself with fine results." sold by L. S. Simmons.

Peaches Bring Good Prices.

The peach crop is quite light in Sonoma valley this season, but those having even a moderately good crop are making money from that source. Word comes from other portions of the county that growers are receiving as high as forty-five dollars per ton for freestone peaches and the clingstone varieties are bringing sixty dollars per ton. These figures are considerably higher than have prevailed for many years. The peach crop is short all over the State, in some sections being almost a total failure, and this accounts for the good prices of the fruit.

M. T. Lynch, Editor of the Phillipsburg, N. J., Daily Post, writes: "I have used many kinds of medicines for coughs and colds in my family but never anything so good as Foley's Honey and Tar. I cannot say too much in praise of it." L. S. Simmons.

Hunters report that deer are plentiful this year. The game wardens claim that they cannot recall when there has been as many deer slaughtered as this season. It is feared that if the present rate of slaughter is kept up the sport will not last long.

Everybody loves our baby, rosy, sweet and warm. With warm kisses places on her neck and dimples on her arms.

Once she was so thin and cross, used to cry with pain.

Mother gave her CASCARAE, now she is well again, sold by L. S. Simmons.

Fruit growers of Tulare county are complaining of the carelessness of fruit peddlars, who go from orchard to orchard buying fruit often using infested boxes thus scattering pests from orchard to orchard.

Orino Lixative Fruit Syrup is sold under a positive guarantee to cure constipation, sick headache, stomach trouble, or any form of indigestion. If it fails, the manufacturers refund your money. What more can one do, L. S. Simmons.

The biggest job of gardening undertaken by the government is the planting of little trees, five and a million of which are now being produced every year for setting out in the various forest reserves.

Keep the pores open and the skin clean when you have a cut, burn, bruise or scratch. DeWitt's Carbolic Witch Hazel salve penetrates the pores and heals quickly, sold by L. S. Simmons.

If a trading stamp went with every husband there would be fewer man-haters.

DeWitt's Early Risers don't sick-en or gripe. Small pills and easy to take, sold by L. S. Simmons.

THE COMING CELEBRATION

The committee appointed by Sonoma Parlor to carry out the big celebration of Admission Day in Sonoma City are working hard to make the event one long to be remembered. There will be a grand parade, literary exercises, races at the track and a grand ball in the evening. The finance committee have appointed City Marshal Jas. H. Albertson to collect and collect subscriptions to defray the expenses of the big time.

The committee hope to secure Park's Brass Band of Santa Rosa to furnish the music throughout the day and evening. Liberal contributions are earnestly asked for to make the celebration a big success. Further details of the program of the day will be published next week.

THE PEOPLE FAVORED

The great John D. has given out the idea that the greatest criminal monopoly on earth, the Standard Oil Co. will not pay the total of $29,500,000 fine imposed upon them recently for conviction of violating the United States law on over 1000 charges. This is good news and also bad. It simply means that the dear people of this land and other countries will not be enriched for that amount for a while, or until the mighty robbers are compelled to dig up.

Now, if the saintly (?) John D. will please refrain from making any more donations, in the mean time, to the Chicago University, perhaps the price of oil will not materially increase for a while at least. Let us give thanks for John D.'s magnanimous spirit.

TRUSTEES MEET.

All members were present at the regular meeting of the city trustees last Wednesday night. Mayor Hotz presided and Clerk Small was at his desk. City attorney Poppe was ordered paid: J. H. Albertson, salary, $20.00; Sonoma City Water Works Co., water, $15; J. H. Fuller, labor, $12; Phil Snyder, labor, $5; H. Castagnasso, hauling, $4; V. Jansen, labor, $5; A. Pinelli street sprinkling, $105.

A warrant was ordered drawn in favor of Henshaw, Buckley & Co. for $477.50 in payment of the new city sprinkler.

The contract with the lighting company was continued for another month. The clerk was instructed to advertise for city printing for one year, bids to be opened Aug. 24, 1907. This matter was overlooked by the trustees as the old contract has expired and therefore there is no city official paper.

The matter of surveying the streets of the city for the purpose of establishing a uniform grade was discussed but no definite action taken. The matter has been delayed too long and it is hoped that the trustees will see that it is done at the earliest possible date as some of our enterprising property owners are anxiously waiting for the official grade to be established before putting in stone curbing and laying cement sidewalks.

According to the treasurer's report, the city now has on hand the sum of $17640.09, distributed as follows: City hall fund, $1,540; bond and interest fund, $830.43; furniture and equipment fund, $327.34; general fund, $1,662.30.

The third reading and final consideration of Ordinance No. 90, the new saloon license ordinance was then taken up. Trustee Bates introduced a resolution containing several amendments to the proposed new law. Certain provisions of which were considered stringent. The amendments carried.

A strong protest signed by the majority of the saloon keepers and others was presented to the board and read by the clerk. Quite a crowd of spectators were present and addressed the board in relation to the proposed new law.

The trustees favoring the law explained that it was not intended to interfere in any way with the conduct of a legitimate business, but was simply intended to correct some of the abuses and evils that sometimes arise when the saloon business is conducted in a loose manner.

Trustee Breitenbach was decidedly opposed to the new law on the grounds that it worked a hardship on the men engaged in business in this and that its provisions were altogether too sweeping, and that the new law was unequalled for and unnecessary. Trustee McDonnell explained that he was in favor of the proposed ordinance with the exception of Sec. 14, which provided for the new law over the entire premises owned or controlled by the person holding a liquor license.

When put to final vote the new ordinance as amended was passed by the following vote: Ayes, Trustees Bates, Wagon and Hotz. Noes: Trustees Breitenbach and McDonnell.

There was some talk of further amending the new law, at a subsequent meeting. Ordinance No. 90 will go to effect upon its adoption, approval and publication.

One of the important changes in the law provides for the payment of $60 for six months' license in advance instead of the payment of the full yearly license of $120.

The trustees will sit as a board of equalization to consider the city assessment roll, commencing the first Monday in September. No further business appearing, the board adjourned till Saturday evening, August 24, next.

BULLETIN OF PROGRESS

The California Promotion Committee in their "Bulletin of Progress" dated July 31st, show that California is enjoying exceptional prosperity. We quote:

"California is in the midst of its harvest season, and from all parts of the State, the California Promotion Committee is receiving splendid reports of crops and price conditions, showing that the State is passing through an era of unexampled prosperity. With the exception of prunes, apricots and asparagus reports show that the output is exceptionally fine, with an East ern demand that exceeds former records. Prices are very high, and even in crops which are short, producers will have best of results."

"There is a dearth of labor in all agricultural districts, and thousands of people can find immediate employment at remunerative wages. Canneries and packing houses note great scarcity of help, notwithstanding a high wage is being offered."

Railway building, both steam and electric, is progressing rapidly in many parts of the State, many lines promising operations during the coming month. Wide development of the interior is promised through this construction, and with it more extensive settlement through subdivision of large tracts into small farms, for which there is great demand."

"Building operations in all parts of the state show great increase. In San Francisco conditions are rapidly improving, prices of building material having returned to about normal, and much outside capital coming in for investment. There is strong financial sentiment, as is indicated by increased bank deposits and increased bank clearings."

"The following summary for July shows California conditions: San Francisco building permits, $4,752,778. Permits since the fire, $4,250,620. Los Angeles building permits, $1,245,174. San Diego building permits, $149,450. Oakland building permits, $373,035.50."

"San Francisco real estate sales, 620, value $1,650,000."

"San Francisco bank clearings, $166,470,396.11. For July 1906, $160,631,793.87. For July 1905, $148,495,121.81."

"Los Angeles bank clearings, $4,812,383. Oakland bank clearings, $10,262,054. San Jose bank clearings, $2,232,139.99."

San Francisco customs receipts, $803,083.66. Save money by getting your S. F. paper with the Expositor, The Chronicle and Expositor only 8.50 per year.

Editor W. K. Roberts

W. K. Roberts, who recently sold his ranch at Vineburg, has purchased the Standard, a weekly newspaper published in Sunnyvale, Santa Clara County. Mr. Roberts is a gentleman of wide experience, a writer of more than ordinary ability and we bespeak for him abundant success in his new venture.

Mrs. Roberts and daughters will leave Sonoma for Sunnyvale as soon as their new home is fitted up.

Supt. Montgomery to Speak

On Friday, August 16th, at 3 o'clock p. m., in the rooms of the Woman's Club, a paper on "The Value of Industrial Education in Schools" will be read, and an address on the work of The National Teachers' Convention, recently held in Los Angeles, will be given by County Supt. Montgomery. Each club member has the privilege of inviting one guest, either lady or gentleman. A full attendance is requested.

Pioneer Here

O. M. LeFebvre and wife of Bloomfield are here for an indefinite stay and are registered at the Union. Mr. LeFebvre is said to be the oldest hotel man in this part of the state, having built LeFebvre's Hotel in Bloomfield in 1859, and conducted it continuously ever since. While here he will take the baths in order to get rid of a severe attack of rheumatism.

A Happy Re-Union

Last Wednesday Madam F. Antunes, formerly Miss Georgiana Schell, with her charming young daughter, Miss Beatrice, arrived at her old home at Schellville, after twenty years absence in Rio Grande, Brazil, and was most happily received by her mother and brother Fred. The latter not having seen his sister for twenty years, Madam Antunes expects to remain here until after the holidays, before returning to her Brazilian home.

HAPPY AT THE GROVE

Paul Vannucci and guests of the Grove are full of joy. Having heard that James Edward Britt was in the best of condition and confident of winning, they wired all the money they could gather to the training quarters at Shannon's telling them to put it all on Britt and thus won a good sum. Paul is sure that Britt will surely win from Gans and is willing to wager on Britt if they ever come together, as it is believed they will soon. When they returned from the race, Mr. Vannucci and friends entertained the Groves by giving a supper, which was greatly enjoyed. The dance hall was crowded and Sad Sam Smith with his comic songs, caused roars of laughter and was repeatedly enjoyed. Among the guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Funnell, of Stoney Mountain; Mr. and Mrs. Devine, of Devine Hall; Boyd and Vannucci of Sonoma Grove; G. H. Thomas, No Man's Land; A. Bullard and friends, a bunch of good fellows; Sad Sam and Francis Cullen, the pride of the Grove; Drum Major at Garrity, played out and others too numerous to mention. Frank Niday gave an exhibition of bare back riding on the white angel. Fred Sanderfeld came in and sang a solo that the guests could not hear.

24 Year' Works-No

Repairs

A Sharples Dairy Tubular Cream Separator has done work equal to 24 years in a row cow dairy without needing adjustment or repairs. Here is the record:

Hours in use	1,200
Pounds separated	1,080,000
Turns of crank	3,155,760
Turns of bowl	1,152,000,000
Oil used	Only 3 quarts
Adjusting and repairs	None

Every Tubular is just as durable, just as well made and just as economical as that one. The Tubular is the only separator holding such a record—the only separator that could stand such a test. Dairy Tubulars have waist low supply cans—enclosed self-oiling gears—a simple bowl suspended from a frictionless ball-bearing. 1 handle Tubulars and want to show you that they increase dairy profits 25 to 100 per cent. not profitable as a thorough search revealed nothing further than a few pieces of whalebone in the bottom of the auto and a brick of cod fish purchased from Jake a few days

DUHRING'S

DIRECTNESS AND ACCURACY

DOCTOR PIERCE'S AIM ALWAYS WAS TO GIVE POSITIVE AND VALUABLE SERVICE FOR EVERY DOLLAR RECEIVED; THEREFORE WHEN HE BEGAN PROFESSIONAL LIFE HE BOUGHT TO

especially in the treatment of a very large class of cases that were being neglected by many physicians through ignorance of their real nature. This necessitated going to the root of things in two special senses—in careful, exhaustive study to know what was the real cause of the innumerable aches, pains, drains and weaknesses which afflicted women, and AGAIN TO THE ROOTS OF THE DISEASES, and produce a remedy for the HEALING OF MANKIND. Thoroughly convinced that alcoholic stimulants and medicines prepared with alcohol did far more harm than good, Dr. Pierce prepared his remedies, extracted their virtues and preserved them without alcohol; then, guided by actual experience, formed combinations by which a minimum of medicine produced the maximum result. This insured his success and gave him the reputation of "the successful specialist," and, quite naturally, the prescription that he thus used most became "his favorite," and was the origin of that had run into great popularity because it cured more than ninety-eight out of every hundred of the cases in which it was correctly used. One of the important ingredients of this now world-famous "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" is

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as now known. In no sense is it a "patent medicine," or even a secret one, but a REAL PRESCRIPTION OF A REAL DOCTOR.

BLUE COHOSH ROOT, which was in great repute among the American Indians a century ago. The squaws used it for the relief of their special troubles, particularly for the easing of the pains of maternity, calling it "Papoosie root." Then there are four other ingredients in this "Favorite Prescription," namely: Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Golden Seal root and Unicorn root.

It Stands Alone not only in respect to its composition, but also as the only specific, advertised remedy for women's diseases, which absolutely CONTAINS NO ALCOHOL.

It Stands Alone as the one medicine for women, fully into their confidence and tell them exactly what they are taking. This Dr. Pierce can afford to do, because his "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" is made of such ingredients and after a working formula that has thousands of cures to its credit, placing its merits above criticism.

1000-page Doctor Book sent free to those who send for it. It contains 250 pages of text and 750 illustrations. It is a complete guide to the treatment of all diseases, and is a valuable reference work for every physician. It is sent free to those who send for it.

YOU Against WILL. A certain young professor of physics is so great a misanthrope that he deliberately announces his lectures for the days when he has reason to think that his students will least want to attend. He commanded their presence on an election day once and drove them nearly wild by delivering a tedious essay on will power.

"If he wills it, a man may accomplish anything," he drowed. "Let him make up his mind not to die, and he will live in spite of disease; let him decide that life is not worth living, and he will drop peacefully out of it. I challenge any student to cite an instance in which the power of the will has not triumphed over everything."

"Up shot the reprobate of the class, a youth beloved by all his companions for his daring humor.

"Sir, I accept your challenge. You are wrong," he said.

"Pray mention an example," retorted the professor dryly.

"With pleasure, sir. An hour ago I would that this lecture should be brought to a speedy conclusion. I've written the same thing sixty times since, but up to now it hasn't come off."

"Nor will it," said the professor, "for I have not only willed that this lecture should last another hour, but am perfectly willing that it should do so."

And it did.

A Miss and a Flea.

It was the habit of the Rev. James Spurgeon, grandfather of the great preacher of that name, to pray each evening under a certain oak tree in a secluded wood in Honeywood park. One night he dreamed, the story goes, that Satan appeared and threatened to tear him in pieces if he followed his accustomed route to the tree. There was another path by which he might go in safety. Remembering his dream, Spurgeon felt sorely tempted the next night to take the route in which Satan was not. But this would be to capitulate. Trembling in every limb, he made his way by the path in which the danger lay. He reached his goal in safety and in prayer and song returned thanks for delivery from peril. When his prayer had ended he rose to return. In his path lay a piece of solid gold "as large as a curtain ring." All inquiry failing to discover an owner, he retained it and when he married had his wife's wedding ring made from his curious find.

A Desperate Wanderer.

Driven to desperation by their heavy losses, gamblers have often sought by some coup either to repair their shattered fortunes or to bring down utter ruin upon themselves. One of the most curious instances of this kind comes from England. In the eighteenth century a notorious gambler had been losing steadily in a game for high stakes with Lord Lynde. Exasperated by his continued ill fortune, he suddenly sprang up from the card table, seized a large and costly punch bowl and, balancing it above his head, called out to his opponent:

"For once I'll have a bet where I have an equal chance of winning! Odd or even, for 15,000 guineas!"

"Odd!" replied the peer placidly, and the gambler hurled the magnificent bowl against the wall.

When they counted the pieces Lord Lynde had won. —Tuesday Magazine.

Warned by Their Perfume.

According to the results of experiments by Dr. Jean Chalon, aromatic plants charged with essential oils which exhale a perfume that spreads like an atmosphere about them when touched by the rays of the sun, exert a slight degree of warning by the presence of this agreeable atmosphere. It acts in retarding the solar heat like the glass covers of a hothouse, although of course far less effectively. Professor Spring has shown that the relatively high temperatures of large cities is probably due, at least in part, to the carbonic anhydride in the air above them acting as a retaining screen for heat rays.

Spots on Leather.

Oxalic acid in weak solutions is the best thing to use when removing spots from leather. Two or three crystals of oxalic dissolved in warm water, then applied with a bit of cloth to the spots, will do the work. Watch carefully, and when the spots begin to disappear apply clear water to overcome the acid, which is a powerful bleacher. Dry the leather with a clean cloth. For bright leather make the solution weaker.—Philadelphia North American.

Right in His Line.

Irate Father—I'm getting tired of this nonsense. You've been engaged to that young man for six months. Does he ever intend to marry you? Daughter—You must have patience, papa. Remember, he's an actor. —Father—What has that to do with it? Daughter—He's fond of long engagements.

He Made Them Read It.

Daughter—Have you found out yet what it was that papa cut out of the paper? Mother—Yes, I bought a copy. I've read it all through, but to save my life I can't see anything new in it. It's an article on the vulgarity and silliness of buying gowns that are beyond one's means.

A Man of High Principles.

Sportsman (up for the week end, who has been asked by his friend to go to a game hall)—No, ha, no! I've no time I never visit a music hall on the Saturday, for fear I should laugh in the girls on the Sawdust—London Opinion.

Adam's Forenightness.

Though Adam blamed Eve for tempting him to eat apples, it isn't on record that he gave her due credit for making those first clothes.—Florida Times-Union.

Old Saying With New Meaning.

The saying "Cast not a clout till May be out" has been understood to be a caution against laying aside winter clothing until the month of May has ended. A correspondent of London Notes and Queries says that an old gardener he knows gives a different turn to the proverb, advising that after the May has come into bloom there is never any further danger of frost, and the saying is really a caution against throwing aside extra garments until the month has come to an end, but until the May be out in blossom.

A Caustic Rejoinder.

A physician who had for fifteen years been one of the doctors of the actors' fund and who attended hundreds of actors with no compensation whatever, wrote to a prominent manager and asked for some theater tickets. His request was refused, the manager asking what the doctor had ever done that he should be entitled to receive theater tickets gratis. The physician immediately replied. His letter contained a brief recital of his services to theatrical people. In conclusion he said: "Despite my services, as named above, I should not have thought of asking you for tickets had it not been that upon the occasion of the death of Mr. Blank you assured me that if you could ever serve me in any way whatever you would consider it a favor if I would call upon you. However, I bear you no ill will on account of your present action. I was very glad to attend Mr. Blank when he died in your box office, and I should be happy to do as much for you at any time."

Tom Corwin's Education.

The father of Tom Corwin, the famous Kentucky statesman, orator and wit, felt that he was too poor to make a scholar of more than one child of his large family, and so the elder brother, Matthias, was kept at school and Thomas placed at hard work on the farm. The breaking of a leg proved a happy incident in the life of the boy, as the enforced confinement gave him time for devotion to his beloved books, and he committed a Latin grammar to memory. Upon his recovery he again importuned his father to send him to school, and, meeting a refusal, deliberately broke his leg the second time that he might have leisure to study. His heroic determination to learn resulted in his being placed in the same institution attended by his brother, where his natural ability and great industry gathered a thorough knowledge of the best English literature and a fair acquaintance with the Latin classics.—Ohio Magazine.

Why Horses Shy.

The horse shied at a piece of white paper, and the rider tumbled off into the mud.

"It is well for the world," said an automobilist, smiling, "that it is ceasing to use the horse for a servant. The horse is a half blind giant, with the mind of a baby. No wonder, then, that when we trust out lives in his keeping he is apt to go back on us.

His main trouble is his eyes. So poor is the horse's sight that he mistakes a bank of snow for a fierce white beast. A mud puddle at his feet is a yawning chasm. A shadow hung across his path is a black terror seeking his life; hence the bewildered, nearsighted, powerful horse goes through life beside himself with fear. He is no more to be trusted than a maniac, and, like a maniac, he sees a monster awaiting him at every corner. Yet we get on his back, fools that we are."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Universal Language of Clothes.

The top hat represents the universal language of attire. It walks and weeps against the walls of Jerusalem, and it turns up in the solitudes of the desert. Even the loneliest mountain peaks are not safe from its democratic simplicity. Once I met a silk hat, probably rescued from some benevolent dust bin, milking a cow in a London park. The hat nearly caused a riot. Each and every passerby turned and stared indignantly. The eccentric cowboy in the top hat finished his allotted task, and in company of his cow and the milk pail he ambled placidly out of sight. Still one can't help asking in the interest of personal liberty, why shouldn't a silk hat be permitted to milk a cow? The cow doesn't mind, so why should we?—Fortnightly Review.

It Might Speak.

The Artist—Oh, ze mandam has ze grand face. I shall make ze speaking likeness. Henpeck—Er—well, old man, you needn't go so far as that, you know.—Metropolitan Magazine.

Traitor.

"They say that he fell overboard as the ship rolled on its side." "Yes, they might say that he left the ship in the lurch."—Yale Record.
